

NIETZSCHE AND POLITICAL THEORY

MANCEPT 2012 WORKSHOP

CONVENED BY

MANUEL KNOLL AND BARRY STOCKER

PARTICIPANTS

Dr Tom ANGIER

University of Kent at Canterbury

mamloge@hotmail.com

'Nietzsche in the Light of Elias'

Nathaniel Adam Tobias COLEMAN

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

natcphd@me.com

'The challenge of aristocratic radicalism'

Prof Daniel CONWAY

Texas A&M

conway@philosophy.tamu.edu

'Closing Time: The Good European or the Last European'

Dr Don DOMBOWSKY

Bishop's University

dombows@ubishops.ca

'Aristocratic Radicalism as a Species of Bonapartism'

Dr Hugo Halferty DROCHON

St John's College, Cambridge

hugohalfertydrochon@gmail.com

'Nietzsche's Perfect State'

Prof Manuel KNOLL

Fatih University

mknoll@fatih.edu.tr

'The "Übermensch" as Social and Political Concept'

Prof Donovan MIYASAKI

Wright State University

d.miyasaki@wright.edu

'A Nietzschean Case for Egalitarianism'

Ayumu OKUBU

University of Tokyo

ayumuokubo@gmail.com

'Music-Making Socrates: Tragic Democracy and Language for the Early Nietzsche'

Phillip ROTH

Independent Scholar, Dresden

phill.h.roth@googlemail.com

'Nietzsche's Early Conception of Legislation'

Evangelia SEMBOU

Political Studies Association

evangelia.sembou@hotmail.com

'Foucault's Use of Nietzsche'

Dr Barry STOCKER

Istanbul Technical University

Barry.Stocker@itu.edu.tr

'Nietzsche and Classical Liberalism: Wilhelm von Humboldt'

Prof Rolf ZIMMERMANN

University of Konstanz

pohl-zimmermann@t-online.de

‘The “will to power”’: Towards a systematic interpretation in moral and political terms with an outlook on Nietzsche as a contemporary of the 20th Century’

Session 1Liberalism and Democracy

Conway, Drochon, Miyasaki

Session 2Aristocratic Radicalism

Coleman, Dombowsky, Knoll

Session 3Before Nietzsche and Early Nietzsche

Okubu, Roth, Stocker

Session 4Nietzsche after 1900

Angier, Zimmermann, Sembou